

Marie-Paule and the Renewal of the World

by Father Leander
VAN RENTERGHEM

Humanity is going through a very serious crisis that is affecting all aspects of life on earth. This crisis has been going on for decades and many solutions have been proposed but they do not succeed in convincing and durably changing the situation. Quite the contrary, the situation only worsens.

This fact reminds us of a quotation often attributed to Albert Einstein: “We cannot resolve a problem with the same way of thinking as the one that created the problem.”

Of course, all modern thinkers do not claim to follow the same way of thinking, but all of them claim to follow a certain way of thinking, which means that they imprison the world in a strictly rational context which, a priori, excludes God, His laws and His wisdom.

And there you have the origin of many problems! Since the Renaissance, man has succumbed to the temptation of wanting to build a civilization based on his reason and his ideas and therefore on his purely human capabilities. This led Raoul Auclair to declare, already more than forty years ago: “That world [our world in crisis] is the end result of three centuries of humanism. This could only end up in a complete affirmation of man, with, as a corollary, the rejection of God.” (Eschatologie de notre Temps, p. 340)

For man, rejecting God means, at the same time, denying the origin of Creation, cutting himself off from his vital Center, rejecting his Principle of unity, harmony and order, as well as drawing away from his Finality, from the very reason of his existence. Consequently, rejecting God is heading for chaos and destruction. Whether or not we like it, and however long it might take, the result is inevitable.

“IT IS ALL GOING TO COME APART”

As impressive as man's genius may be, it is but one faculty among others. To set it up as the master of the world is to reduce, terribly and dangerously, the whole of life on earth. This would be like wanting to build a house without any general plan and with one single tool. The project would be doomed to failure.

In reality, modern man is doing much worse, without even realizing besides that he has become the plaything of malevolent forces.

As a consequence, the state of our world is even more concerning. The house man built is shaking on its rotten foundations. And since the house is not only at the origin of a great number of problems, but that its structure itself is a problem – as soon as it is opposed to God – the only future that can be envisioned leads to its complete destruction and its reconstruction under another form.

As Marie-Paule wrote: “It will not be long before the world will witness the downfall of the infernal. It is all going to come apart, everything that was put together in hate, lies and revolt.”

(Life of Love XI, p. 333)

That is when it will be possible for a new world to be born from Marie-Paule's Heart. Considering the different aspects of her Work, She is truly the solution to all the problems man so ingeniously created for himself. She is the Lady God who will reset humanity on its orbit around the royal Star.

MARIE-PAULE IS THE SOLUTION

Thus, based on our new faith and as we call to mind the contrast with the present state of the world, we can put forth and develop six assertions

Marie-Paule is the answer to the distress of the peoples.

- After the collapse of tyranny and oppression, She will re-establish the faith in only one God by inspiring “a new style of spirituality”, as she herself said. (Le Royaume, no. 158, Nov.-Dec. 2002, p. 13) The men and women of all peoples will acknowledge that they are equal with regard to the ten commandments, the only guarantee of a genuine freedom.
- After the illusions of materialism, unrestrained consumption and hedonism, She will arouse in souls an attraction for virtue, the source of a deep joy and the motivating force for a lasting development.
- She will command “silence” to the deadly storms of wars and, She will cause fraternal love and mutual forgiveness to descend between adversaries.

Marie-Paule is the light set at the top of the religions.

- Instead of the relativism that devalued religious teaching, Marie-Paule will rekindle in souls a thirst for the Absolute. The religious life will regain its vital zeal and once again become a guide for all believers.
- After the sentimentalism that dulled the faith and tempered souls, Marie-Paule will breathe in a mystical spirituality, attentive to providential events that foster the blossoming out of the divine life in men's hearts.
- Unlike the clericalism that stifled the sincere upsurges of so many souls, Marie-Paule will introduce the feminine pole in the religious hierarchy, the guardian of the autonomy and originality of the expressions of life.

Marie-Paule is the Mother who will restore to families the importance due them.

- In opposition to the individualism that imprisoned so many young and no-so-young in a vain and sterile quest of self, She will give value once again to the devotedness of mothers and fathers, the basis of a harmonious society.
- After the ideological interference that gangrened education and has sought to supplant parents' voices, She will confirm families in their noble task and reinforce their confidence in their mission.
- When the piercing sirens of entertainment, rendering children mindless, will have finally been silenced, Marie-Paule will guide them to discover their vocation and incite them to embrace a destiny in keeping with their ideal.

Marie-Paule is the solution to the break-up of society.

- Once the very destructive political and social struggles will have stopped, She will shape a new mentality in man, rooted in human dignity and consisting of respect, understanding and compassion. Once again, men will be able to listen to one another and, above all, appreciate each other.

- After the world will have endured the torments of a culture that denatures humanity and clips its wings, Marie-Paule will inspire a renewal of authentic art that will then become a vivifying source in the progression of souls to God.
- To end the bane of solitude affecting so many people in our modern world, She will see to it that solid and heartwarming bonds are woven, uniting hearts in a spontaneous charity.

Marie-Paule is the revelation that will re-establish the sciences in their vertical axis.

- To the explorers of the infinitely tiny and those who observe the stars, She will broaden their field of vision to the three states of Matter and the three Worlds of the Total Earth, all the way to the edge of the Divine World.
- To those who are called to medicine, She will offer the key of the three bodies, guiding their efforts towards an understanding of the unity of the being, in view of union with God.
- To builders and engineers, She will entrust the mystery of the sacred Number that will inspire structures and infrastructures in the image of the splendor and simplicity of the celestial harmony.

And finally, Marie-Paule is the long-awaited Co-Redemptrix who will crush the serpent's head.

- Above the dark horizon of our humanity her Immaculate Heart will rise, like a blazing Sun that will establish itself in the firmament of the peoples never to leave it again.
- With maternal tenderness and discretion, she will care for the souls wounded by sin. To those who were subjected to evil, She will teach the liberating wisdom of the cross and forgiveness. To those who committed evil, she will grant mercy in the measure of their repentance.
- When She will have started to free the earth from Satan's yoke, She will become the "corridor" that will enable the souls already saved and waiting in Heaven to rise again here below, so as to continue on their way to God.

A FLAGSHIP INSTITUTION

Besides having renewed humanity in its substance, Marie-Paule prepared the necessary ways here below to channel the universal renewal emanating from her Heart.

The history of the Work shows us a large number of foundations covering the different areas of human life, and they will be able to irrigate it to its depths with the grace Marie-Paule merited for humanity.

Thus, the foundations followed one another and revealed an obvious and logical gradation which ended with the new sacred Royalty. It will be the flagship institution of the renewal, the "operation center", the mooring point that will allow for an efficient distribution of "the divine flood" coming from On-High.

In this regard, it is appropriate to recall a few elements that show or remind us that Royalty is the keystone of Marie-Paule's Work.

On May 31, 2010, Marc Bosquart was crowned Church King by Padre Jean-Pierre, taking the name of Marc-André I. Padre Jean-Pierre was mandated by Heaven (cf. White Book V, p. 148), as were in the past the prophet Samuel for King David and Bishop Rémi for King Clovis.

At the time of the ceremony preparing the sacred anointing, it was indicated to the assembly that on that day began "the time of the real Kingdom in which the Queenship of Marie-Paule, along with the Kingship of Jesus Christ, will be fully understood and celebrated. Thus, it is within this reality of the 'new Reign' that the other institutions will find their place, beginning with the renewed Church." (Le Royaume, no. 203, May-June 2010, p. 9)

With this statement, we understand that Royalty, at the top of the Kingdom, covers all the other institutions, including, first of all, the renewed Church. In a solemn declaration made immediately after his sacred anointing, the King would again confirm that the Kingdom was "actualized" on that day. (Id., p. 14)

In other words, the sacred anointing founded the Kingdom because it is through this latter that the person of the King is consecrated so that he may guide his people. The sacred anointing produces an ontological change in the person and it establishes the channel of grace between Heaven and Earth, a channel that is necessary for the proper guidance of the people. Thus, it can be said that the sacred anointing does not only concern the person of the King, but also the people itself, and perhaps the people even more than the King. For on the level of its advancement, it is the people who depend on the King and not the opposite.

In this regard, while she was preparing the day of the sacred anointing, Marie-Paule, in her usual simplicity, and as she referred to Marc, had us take note that "people are turning to him more and more." (White Book V, p. 147) This sentence was written at a time when she herself was "disappearing" more and more on the human level because of her health.

"IS IT FOR THE PRESENT DAY?"

Given the embryonic state in which the role of Royalty is at the present time, one question remains: "Is it for today?" In an article written ten years ago, the King also asked himself the question and he answered it explicitly.

"Thus, the coming of the Kingdom is a necessity. But is it for the present day? Without any doubt, and for many reasons, among which is the following: Would Heaven have officially instituted the new Royalty or sacred Royalty if this latter bore no relationship to the present world (with the place that will be given to the Work in society as soon as 'a door of communication' will open), and if it were nothing more than a vague promise for much later, a reality which most of us, in any case, will never see the fulfillment?'" (Le Royaume, no. 227, May-June 2014, p. 5)

The question is purely rhetorical, as soon as the answer is obvious. Sacred Royalty "is not a vague promise for much later", nor is it "a reality which most of us, in any case, will never see the fulfillment". It is a presence, the spreading of which, on a much broader scale, is awaiting us, US, the current members of the Lady's Work and US in the sense of our contemporaries who are still asleep.

Then, "the Kingdom of the Lady" will begin. "It will be necessary that she truly be able to say to God, her Father, and the Immaculate, her Mother: 'Behold the world that men have succeeded in building after my intervention, under the guidance of the Spirit. I gave my life so that this world might be in conformity with your holy will and that men experience there a real terrestrial happiness before undertaking the ascent of the long ladder of the worlds and of the states of being that lead to your Heart, the source of infinite Love for the whole universe.'" (Id., p. 7) ■
